

A Celtic Cross Layout using Rider Waite Smith, 3/12/2019

1. The Situation at Hand: 8 Wands
 - o Things are moving swiftly now; changes are at hand. Could indicate some travel or journey (I forgot about travel here, but it is air travel with the wands flying through the air, so that didn't occur to me. Perhaps you're going to NV soon to check on the house. The flight should go smoothly but quick)
2. Obstacle or Support: The Star
 - o Your support is when you engage with your true spiritual self and continually fill your well with spiritual gifts. You also have spiritual gifts, possibly clairvoyance.
3. Distant Past: 10 Swords
 - o End of a cycle of ruin. All efforts lead to your ruin and defeat.
4. Recent Past: 9 Pentacles (Reversed)
 - o Property crime. Unprosperous setting. Instability of finances. Losing ground.
5. Possible Future: 4 Swords
 - o Rest, meditation, retreat. Self-care. A break from battle. Time to assess priorities.
6. Immediate Future: 2 Pentacles (Reversed)
 - o Juggling competing priorities. Potential for financial loss/lack of growth. Over-commitment.
7. How You See It: Justice (Reversed)
 - o You are weighing a decision, reversed the ego is involved, or guilt or shame.
8. Your Environment/How Others See It: Knight of Swords
 - o An ambitious man. Eager to move forward. He's in your court and taking you with him. Possibly an air sign or has some air sign qualities. Also, I equate swords with writing.
9. Hopes and Fears: 5 Wands (Reversed)
 - o Wasted effort. Moving sand around. Pointless struggle.
10. Final Outcome: Queen of Swords (Reversed)
 - o A bitter woman. Alone, possibly mad. Potential to upright, however, and embody the sharp witted, independent, stable and serene Queen. Also, swords is the suit of writers.

Bonus Reading

2. Continue the same course
 1. The Sun (Reversed)
 - Reversed is illness, relationship problems. Lack of growth. Not necessarily relapse but upright version of card is recovery, so perhaps.
